Dear Parishioners,

As your family gathers for Easter brunch or dinner, consider saying this prayer: "God of glory, the eyes of all turn to you as we celebrate Christ's victory over sin and death. Bless us and this food of our Easter meal. May we who gather at the Lord's table, continue to celebrate the joy of his resurrection and be admitted finally to his heavenly banquet. Grant this through Christ our Lord, Amen."

Fr. Mike

Stewardship Reflection April 16, 2017

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb. John 20:1

What led Mary to get up so early and visit the tomb of Jesus? To spend some quiet time near his resting place? To revisit his words of encouragement and compassion? To gain strength to remain faithful to his message? Each of these would be wonderful Easter gifts for us.

Catechism Corner

What are the most ancient symbols (professions) of faith?

The most ancient symbols of faith are the baptismal creeds. Because Baptism is conferred "in the name of the Father, and the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19), the truths of faith professed at Baptism are articulated in reference to the three Persons of the Most Holy Trinity.

Estimados Feligreses,

Cuando su familia se reúna para la comida o la cena de Pascua, considere la posibilidad de decir esta oración: "Dios de gloria, los ojos de todos se vuelven a ti mientras celebramos la victoria de Cristo sobre el pecado y la muerte. Bendícenos y estos alimentos de nuestra comida de Pascua. Que nosotros, los que nos reunimos a la mesa del Señor, continuemos celebrando el gozo de su resurrección y finalmente seamos admitidos en su banquete celestial. Concede esto por Cristo nuestro Señor, Amén"
