Dear Parishioners,

When you attended Mass here on Easter Sunday, you may have noticed how clean the church looked. A crew of parishioners cleaned the pews and the windows the Saturday before Palm Sunday. There were also parishioners hard at work inside the rectory, as well as outside on the grounds at the same time. This was all part of the work day for the parish. Their efforts are much appreciated.

Stewardship Reflection April 23, 2017

Jesus said to the apostle Thomas, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." John 20:30

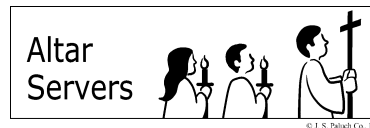

Writing about seventy years after the resurrection, the evangelist John surely passed on these words of Jesus to encourage his congregation, almost none of whom would have seen Jesus. We're in the same category. Blessed are we who not only believe, but actively practice the teachings of Jesus.

What are the most important symbols of faith?

They are the Apostles' Creed which is the ancient baptismal symbol of the Church of Rome and the Nicene-Constantinopolitan Creed which stems from the first two ecumenical Councils, that of Nicea (325 A.D.) and that of Constantinople (381 A.D.) and which even to this day are common to all the great Churches of the East and the West.

Estimados Feligreses,

Cuando asistieron a misa aquí el domingo de Pascua, pudieron haber notado lo limpia que se ve la iglesia. Un grupo de parroquianos limpiaron las bancas y las ventanas el sábado anterior al Domingo de Ramos. También hubieron feligreses trabajando duro dentro de la rectoría, así como afuera en los terrenos al mismo tiempo. Todo esto fue parte de la jornada de trabajo para la parroquia. Sus esfuerzos son muy apreciados.
