Dear Parishioners,

The young man from our parish who has been attending the seminary, Arturo Hernandez, has decided to take a different path. He plans to become a monk at Conception Abbey. Please keep him and all young people who are discerning their vocation in your prayers. This is especially appropriate now, since next Sunday, May 7, is the World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

Stewardship Reflection April 30, 2017

While the two disciples were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. Luke 24:15-16

In failing to recognize Jesus, the experience of the two disciples on the road to Emmaus is hardly unique. Jesus can be irritatingly hard to recognize! But as stewards, it's our task to discern the presence of Jesus in all those who need our compassion... whether in our family, our circle of friends and church community, but also in the needy, those who can especially be assisted by our time, our energy, our resources.

Catechism Corner

When does one profess belief that there is only one God?

Belief in the one God is professed because he has revealed himself to the people of Israel as the only One when he said, "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord" (Deuteronomy 6:4) and "there is no other" (Isaiah 45:22). Jesus himself confirmed that God is "the one Lord" (Mark 12:29). To confess that Jesus and the Holy Spirit are also God and Lord does not introduce any division into the one God.
