Marriage Minute

What do you think?

This weekend, St. Paul gets very specific in his recommendations of what we should think about. Why? Because what we spend time thinking about, we see more of! Thinking about what color to paint your house? All you notice is the colors of the houses in your neighborhood. Chances are, you married someone who is a mix of strengths and weaknesses. Why not spend time thinking about your spouse's wonderful qualities? It won't make the bad things go away, but you will be spending so much time looking for the good that you won't notice as much.

This week think about your spouse's:

- Most endearing qualities
- Most recent sacrificial act
- Most attractive traits

For more encouragement in thinking the best about your spouse, go to www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com

Stewardship Reflection October 7, 2017

"The stone the builders rejected has become the corner stone..." - MATTHEW 21:42

Jesus was the corner stone and He was rejected by the religious and political leaders of his day, as well as ordinary citizens. Living a stewardship lifestyle may cause you to be "rejected" by others in today's society. For example, saying grace before a meal in a restaurant may attract some strange looks from some. But to others it is sign that God is alive and well!

Catechism Corner

How did Jesus institute the Eucharist?

After he had gathered with his apostles in the Cenacle, Jesus took bread in his hands, He broke it and gave it to them saying, "Take this and eat it, all of you; this is my Body which will be given up for you." Then, he took the cup of wine in his hands and said, "Take this and drink of this, all of you. This is the cup of my Blood, the Blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me."
