Dear Parishioners,

Next weekend, we will celebrate the anniversary of our church. The building stands for the community which it houses. So, we are really celebrating our parish as a community of faith. As parish members, we contribute of our time, talents and treasure, to serve one another. That is the true meaning of ministry. And Christ has called us all to minister. We are to imitate him, "who came, not to be served, but to serve."

Fr. Mike

Marriage Minute

Did you have a good friend or family member skip your wedding for a trivial reason?

If so, you understand the frustration of the father of the groom in this weekend's Gospel. Not only do some guests skip the feast, but some even got violent with his messengers! This is incredibly disrespectful considering the quality of the invite. God has carefully prepared a feast of great joy for us in our marriages.

Accepting this invitation means:

- Prioritizing our marriage over work
- Cleaning ourselves up (through reconciliation with spouse and God)
- Dressing up (acts of kindness) Whether we are talking about a wedding feast or our marriages, the extra effort to respond to the Father's invitation pays great dividends in lasting joy.

Stewardship Reflection October 15 2017

"My God will supply whatever you need..." - PHILIPPIANS 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time, talent and treasure and see how God provides for your needs.

Catechism Corner

What kind of bond exists between created things?

There exists an interdependence and a hierarchy among creatures as willed by God. At the same time, there is also a unity and solidarity among creatures since all have the same Creator, are loved by him and are ordered to his glory. Respecting the laws inscribed in creation and the relations which derive from the nature of things, is therefore, a principle of wisdom and a foundation for morality. Further reading: CCC 342, 354

Estimados Feligreses,

El próximo fin de semana, celebraremos el aniversario de nuestra iglesia. El edificio representa la comunidad que alberga. Realmente estaremos celebrando nuestra parroquia como una comunidad de fe. Como miembros de la parroquia, contribuimos de nuestro tiempo, talento y dones, para servirnos unos a otros. Ese es el verdadero significado del ministerio. Y Cristo nos ha llamado a todos a ser ministros. Debemos imitarlo, “no vino para que le sirvan, sino para servir.”

Padre Mike
