The Epiphany of the Lord

Magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying,
“Where is the newborn king of the Jews?
We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.”

Matthew 2:1-2

Dear parishioners,

As we conclude the Christmas season, I wish to acknowledge those parishioners who worked so hard to help us celebrate the liturgies. They put up the decorations, practiced and led the music, and carried out the ministries of lector, altar server, Eucharistic minister, and usher. It takes a team for us to celebrate the liturgy. We are blessed with a great family here at Holy Cross. They did a wonderful job. All of your time and effort are much appreciated.

Fr. Mike

Catechism Corner

What is original sin?

Original sin, in which all human beings are born, is the state of deprivation of original holiness and justice. It is a sin "contracted" by us not "committed"; it is a state of birth and not a personal act. Because of the original unity of all human beings, it is transmitted to the descendants of Adam "not by imitation, but by propagation". This transmission remains a mystery which we cannot fully understand. Further reading: CCC 404, 419

Epiphany of the Lord

"...they fell down and worshipped him. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh..." - Matthew 2:11

Notice the order of events in the Magi's visit. First, they knelt before Jesus and prayed to Him. Then they presented Him with their gifts. We, too, must take time to pray before we present our gifts to the Lord. We never know what God may be asking us to share!

Estimados Feligreses,

Al concluir la temporada de Navidad, deseo agradecer a los feligreses que trabajaron duro para ayudarnos a celebrar las liturgias. Acomodaron las decoraciones, practicaron y dirigieron la música, y llevaron a cabo los ministerios de lector, monaguillo, ministro de Eucaristía, y ujier. Se necesita un equipo para que nosotros podamos celebrar la liturgia. Somos bendecidos con una gran familia aquí en Holy Cross. Hicieron un trabajo maravilloso. Todo su tiempo y esfuerzo son muy apreciados.
