From the cloud came a voice:
"This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."

Mark 9:7

Dear parishioners,

During Lent, our parish holds the Stations of the Cross on Friday evenings. This is a good opportunity for prayer for all of us. It also offers an opportunity to introduce someone who is not Catholic to the Catholic Church. The Stations of the Cross are more accessible, perhaps more comprehensible, than the Mass. And since we do not allow someone who is not Catholic to receive Holy Communion, it means that they cannot participate fully. On the other hand, that is not an issue with the Stations of the Cross. And to top it all off, we also have the Friday fish dinners during Lent. You could invite someone to attend Stations of the Cross and then share a meal with them. That would give them a taste of what the Catholic Church is like.

A look into Lent

Week 2 - Hack your Way into Heaven

The original "hack" was any shortcut to a computer programming problem, hence the term "hacker". Hackers started applying the term to their everyday lives calling them "life hacks" which are practices that increase productivity in a creative way. As disciples of Christ, we can apply this concept to our practice of God's love as charity. Here are a few Charity Hacks to try in your practice of Christianity.

Sock it to Homelessness

We've all had that minor conscience crisis driving past a homeless man asking for help. We don't want to pass by Christ, himself. However, we fear giving money could enable the man to drink or drug his problems away. There is a way to avoid this pitfall. Give him socks. These guys do a lot of walking and socks wear out quickly, especially in the cold months. Buy a big pack of thick tube socks and keep them in the car to give away.

2 For 1 Medicine

By law, the medicine in name brands has to be exactly the same stuff in the generic, which often sells at half the price. So when you buy medicine, buy two of the generic brand and give one to a health clinic that serves the poor. Call Duchesne Clinic (913-321-2626) and/or St. Vincent's Clinic (913-651-8860) and find out which over-the-counter medicine are needed to give their patients. Find a clinic and stop by with your donation after you go to the drug store.

Don't leave your Clothes Hanging

Take all your clothes that you have hanging and turn the hangers with the hook end facing you. When you wear a garment hang it back as you would normally. Schedule or pick a holiday that's 3 months away to check your closet. Any clothes where the hook end hasn't been turned, are clothes you don't wear. Give them to a charity like Catholic Charities Turnstyles, 9750 W. 87th Street, Overland Park, KS.

The practice of charity is not optional for Catholics. Reading scripture and receiving the sacraments alone aren't enough to get you into Heaven. If study and prayer don't translate into concrete acts of love, especially with an eye to helping the poor in your everyday practice, your faith-life is stunted. Try adding some charity hacks and you may hack your way into Heaven.

Marriage Minute

Are you prepared?

Jesus prepares Peter, James, and John for his impending death by appearing transfigured before them, so that later when they saw him bound and beaten, they could remember who he truly was. Married people certainly encounter hardships. Whether the trials come from outside forces or from our own sin and weakness, they are guaranteed. One thing that can help us weather these storms is being intentional about taking time out for our own “transfiguration” moments—times we can see our marriages as they truly are. Weekends like “Living in Love” or “Marriage Encounter” won’t prevent bad things from happening, but they can remind us why we married our spouse and how important our vocation is to the Church.

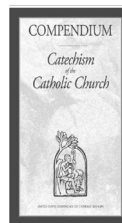

To find your “transfiguration,” see www.joyfulmarriageproject.com.

Stewardship Reflection February 25, 2018

“Here I am!” he answered.” - Genesis 22:11

It is easy to say, “Here I am, Lord,” when we are kneeling in church. But how easy is it to say “Here I am, Lord,” when a neighbor needs our help, when we are invited to join a parish ministry, or when we are asked to provide financial support? Often times we are called when it’s not convenient for us. Discipleship is not always easy, most of the time it will make us uncomfortable and vulnerable.

Catechism Corner

Why did the Son of God become man?

For us men and for our salvation, the Son of God became incarnate in the womb of the Virgin Mary by the power of the Holy Spirit. He did so to reconcile us sinners with God, to have us learn of God's infinite love, to be our model of holiness and to make us "partakers of the divine nature" (2 Peter 1:4) Further reading: CCC 456-460

Estimados Feligreses,
 Durante la Cuaresma, nuestra parroquia tiene las Estaciones de la Cruz los viernes por la noche. Esta es una buena oportunidad para orar por todos nosotros. También ofrece la oportunidad de presentar a alguien que no es Católico a la Iglesia Católica. Las Estaciones de la Cruz son más accesibles, tal vez más comprensibles, que la Misa. Y dado que no permitimos que alguien que no es católico reciba la Sagrada Comunión, esto significa que no pueden participar plenamente. Por otro lado, eso no es un problema con las Estaciones de la Cruz. También tenemos las cenas de pescado los viernes durante la Cuaresma. Podría invitar a alguien a asistir a las Estaciones de la Cruz y después compartir una comida con ellos. Eso les daría una idea de cómo es la Iglesia Católica.
