Therefore, let us celebrate the feast.

1 Corinthians 5:7-8

Dear parishioners,

Easter is a time for renewal. Our parish receives the new Holy Oils just blessed during the Chrism Mass. New Holy Water is blessed. The Easter fire is kindled. Our parish receives new members, six young people who were baptized, confirmed and made their First Communion during the Easter Vigil, two adults already baptized who were confirmed and made their First Communion. And lastly, all of us who renew our baptismal promises during the Easter Masses. All is made new.

Your Baptismal Promise

When my children were young, something of a minor miracle happened to me at Easter Mass. While holding a baby and keeping a father's eye on my young sons, I was actually able to pay attention to what I was praying and think about the meaning of the words. The prayer was the renewal of my baptismal promise.

"Do you reject Satan?" "I do!" (Man, I hate that guy!) "And all his works?" "I do!" (Of course, I'm not sure what he is working on, but I want no part of it.) "And all his empty promises?" "I do!" (All right, already, I reject him why do I have to repeat it three times?) Then I am asked to reaffirm all my beliefs in Christ and His Church.

My mind goes back to this whole Satan thing. Just how do I reject him, his works, and his empty promises? I don't exactly wake up in the morning to find the prince of darkness offering me a cup of coffee, trying to entice me into his nefarious plans. While there have been times I have felt my moral deliberations clouded by a dark force, for the most part Ol' Scratch keeps a low profile.

Lent started with the scripture where Satan tempts Christ with all the kingdoms of the world. In fact, in another passage, our Lord calls him the prince of this world. Satan has political power and lots of it! The story of our Lord's passion is full of political intrigue, and Satan is behind the scenes pulling the strings. Surely this prince of the world has not stopped his meddling in human affairs. I can just hear Satan mocking, "Legalized abortion, ethnic cleansing, starvation amidst abundance, human trafficking, consumerism, pornography; come on guys do you think these just happen without a great deal of dark effort from beyond?"

Thus, to reject Satan means to reject all social orders that go against the Kingdom of God. We reject Satan not just by resisting personal temptation, but by working to change the cultural and political structures that promote sin, suffering, and injustice. We are called to seek out unjust social orders and work to make them right. This is hard. This will call us to follow Jesus to the cross.

As Lent ends and the Easter season begins, how will you live out your baptismal promises? Ask God to direct you. Maybe it means you challenge a bigoted statement at a dinner party. Maybe it means you risk getting fired and stand against an unjust policy at work. Maybe it means you sacrifice some free time and get involved in a political issue. The resurrected Christ has empowered us to reclaim the world usurped by Satan. So fight the prince's power. After all, you promised.

Marriage Minute

"Let Easter impact your marriage!"

After the sacrifice of Lent and the gloom of Holy Week, we can sometimes arrive at Easter like someone who has finished a dreaded chore, and we resume regularly-scheduled life. However, if this is our approach, we miss the gift Easter can be for our marriages. The first message of the Resurrection is "Don't be afraid!" This phrase is proclaimed to all who approach the empty tomb, and to us as married people as well.

We should not be afraid:

- ... of serious illness, financial or relationship problems. He has conquered even death, so He can bring good out of any evil we face.
- ... of facing our own or our spouse's sin. He loved his disciples after they abandoned him. He can help us love each other with that same love.

Catechism Corner

Did the incarnate Son of God have a soul with human knowledge?

The Son of God assumed a body animated by a rational human soul. With his human intellect Jesus learned many things by way of experience; but also as a man the Son of God had an intimate and immediate knowledge of God his Father. He likewise understood people's secret thoughts and he knew fully the eternal plans which he had come to reveal. Further reading: CCC 470-474, 482
