NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear parishioners,

Consider a family which owes a mortgage on its house. Over time, the family can pay off its debt, as long as it lives within its means. On the other hand, family whose income does not cover its expenses will only add to its debt and make it worse. Our parish owes debt to the archdiocese. Frequently we have been adding to that debt, because our expenses have often exceeded our income. On the other hand, if we were able to balance our budget, we could chip away at that debt and eventually pay it off. That should be our goal.

Fr. Mike

Stewardship Reflection August 12, 2018

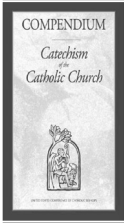

"Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!" 1 KINGS 19:7

Jesus knows that our stewardship journey will be difficult; we are not designed to do it on our own. Fortunately, Jesus gave us the greatest gift of all – the gift of the Eucharist; His own body and blood. When we join our sacrifices with the sacrifice of the Mass, we find the strength and courage to be His joyful disciples.

Catechism Corner

In the Kingdom, what authority did Jesus bestow upon his Apostles?

Jesus chose the twelve, the future witnesses of his Resurrection, and made them sharers of his mission and of his authority to teach, to absolve from sins, and to build up and govern the Church. In his college, Peter received "the keys of the Kingdom" (Matthew 16:19) and assumed the first place with the mission to keep the faith in its integrity and to strengthen his brothers.

Estimados Feligreses,

Considere una familia que debe una hipoteca de su casa. Con el tiempo, la familia puede pagar su deuda, siempre que viva dentro de sus posibilidades. Por otro lado, la familia cuyos ingresos no cubren sus gastos solo aumentará su deuda y la empeorará. Nuestra parroquia debe una deuda a la arquidiócesis. Con frecuencia hemos aumentado esa deuda, porque nuestros gastos a menudo han excedido nuestros ingresos. Por otro lado, si pudieramos equilibrar nuestro presupuesto, podríamos eliminar esa deuda y finalmente pagarla. Esa debería ser nuestra meta.

Padre Mike
