Dear parishioners,

Our Parish Festival went off splendidly. Concelebrating at the Festival Mass with the Archbishop were Fr. Franco, Fr. Tom Kearns, Fr. Bob Plumm, Fr. Tony Lickteig, Fr. Anthony Williams, Fr. Bill Porter, and myself. Fr. Saiki served as M.C. for the Mass. Also present for the Mass were many founding members of the parish. Fr. Mark Mertes and Fr. John Reynolds joined us for the Festival, even though they were not able to be present for the Mass. And God blessed us with wonderful weather.

At the beginning of first grade we are going on adventures with our Superkids friends. Within these adventures we are learning the foundational reading skills as well relating these adventures and lasting life lesson to Saints we are learning about this year. We are focusing the beginning of the year looking at role models and Saints to see how they relate to our lives and how we can learn from them. These role models include looking at individuals within our school and community to see how they help us to be safe and grow in truth, beauty, and goodness. Throughout our adventures we are developing basic mental math strategies to help us become more fluent in our math facts. Soon we will start to look at the world around us to compare living

Marriage Minute

Do you hear what I hear?

Being a good listener is a vital part of living our dignity as Christians. Jesus is an attentive and available listener to all who seek him. Because our marriages imitate Christ’s love for the Church, we are called to generously listen to our spouse. How do we do this?

- Be available: prioritize listening to your spouse by setting aside time each day to connect.
- Be attentive: When listening, give full attention through proper posture and eye contact. And shut off distractions like the phone or television.
- Be understanding: demonstrate you understood what was said by repeating back in your own words what was communicated to you.
- Be prayerful: ask God to help you be a better listener.

To grow in this skill, check out the Every Day in Love series: www.archkck.org/everyday

Stewardship Reflection September 16, 2018

“Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” MARK 8:34

When we truly believe that all we have is a gift from God, then we must be willing to give up some things so that we can share our blessings as God intended. Living a stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for our own life, but the lives of others as well.

Catechism Corner

What does ‘Hallowed by thy Name’ mean?

To hallow or make holy the Name of God is above all a prayer of praise that acknowledges God as holy. In fact, God revealed his holy Name to Moses and wanted his people to be consecrated for him as a holy nation in which he would dwell. Further reading: CCC 2807-2812, 2858
