Dear Parishioners,

The Holy Father has surprised the entire world by his announcement that he plans to resign. His willingness to relinquish power can perhaps teach us all a lesson in humility. In making this decision, Pope Benedict is following the example of our Savior Jesus Christ, "who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped." (Philippians 2:6) It is difficult to let go of power. The Holy Father is doing so for the good of the Church. That is a wise and noble decision.

Fr. Mike

Stewardship Reflection February 17, 2013

“I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given me.”

Deuteronomy 26:10

Moses and the people of Israel were filled with gratitude to God for saving them. To thank Him, they offered the first fruits of their harvest. Do we give our best to God—our first fruits? It is so easy to take care of ourselves first and give God the leftovers. We need to remember that everything we have comes from God and that we owe it to Him to give our best in return.

La Iglesia Holy Cross es una comunidad diversa y acogedora, unida en la fe Católica, comprometida en formar a la gente en la imagen de Cristo, para servir mejor al Señor y al prójimo.

“Encuentro”

Queridos feligreses:

El Santo Padre ha sorprendido al mundo entero con el anuncio de su renuncia. Su consentimiento a renunciar su puesto nos enseña quizás una lección en humildad. Con esta decisión, el Papa Benedicto XVI está siguiendo el ejemplo de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, “quién, aunque estaba en la forma de Dios, no consideró la igualdad con Dios, como algo fácil de comprender.” (Filipenses 2:6)

Es difícil renunciar al poder. Es Santo Padre lo está haciendo por el bien de la Iglesia. Ésta es una decisión inteligente y noble.

Fr. Mike
