Dear Parishioners,
 The concert here at Holy Cross on Sunday afternoon was outstanding. Music groups from churches in the immediate area performed in a wide variety of styles and liturgical traditions. They sang in six different languages: English, Spanish, Latin, Korean, Greek, and Hebrew. It is amazing that we have such a wealth of diversity in only a few blocks. But despite the many differences, the musicians all shared something very important in common. They all use music to give glory and praise to God.

Stewardship Reflection April 28, 2013

“As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

John 13:34-35

In today’s Gospel, Jesus gives His disciples a new commandment: to love one another. In this case, as Jesus has loved them, not just as they love themselves. This is the true essence of Christian stewardship: to love our neighbors as Jesus loved us. That is how we show others that we are disciples of Jesus.
