Have You Ever Wanted to Bring Up The Gifts During Sunday Mass?

Well here is what to do. Sign in before Mass begins using the form posted on the sacristy door and then let the ushers know that you have volunteered to bring up the gifts during Mass. Normally there are three Gift Bearers at each Mass for the bread, the wine and the offering. If there are more than three people in your family, they are welcome to be part of the offertory procession, too. The two people carrying the bread and wine walk side by side down the aisle. The person carrying the offering is behind them. In turn, they hand the gifts to the priest, bow together toward the altar and return to their seats. In this simple yet special ministry you represent the entire parish as we return to God a small part of the blessings that the Lord has given to us.

In Loving Remembrance

... is a grief and loss resource for those encountering an early infant loss due to miscarriage, ectopic pregnancy, stillbirth or early infant death. The program blends the best of psychological research, Catholic spirituality and other trusted resources. It can be used as a four week support group course, but the workbook can also be used on its own. It can benefit parents, grandparents, relatives and friends. The loss can be recent or long ago. Participants will look at grief and loss of an infant, grief and loss in general, and approaches for managing their grief. They will have opportunities to share their journey, memorialize their child, realize that they are not alone in their suffering and be supported by others in similar situations and by the larger Church..

If you would like to learn more about the program, please contact Libby DuPont at ldupont@archkck.org. If you would like to be trained to present this course to the parish community, there will be a training at the Church of the Nativity in Leawood on Sat., Aug. 24, from 9:00 am to 12:00 noon. To register, contact Helen Dennihan, LCMFT, RN at dennihan6@kc.rr.com. The next four week session will be held on Thursdays in September at the Church of the Nativity.
