Peter Jaramillo. It is the same group that went a couple of years ago, but this time we will be following a different route. We will be walking north from Portugal. Keep us in your prayers.

Stewardship Reflection June 12, 2016

Jesus spoke up and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." Luke 7:40

Simon, Jesus' host at a dinner, probably had no idea what Jesus was going to say to him. It turned out to be a rebuke, a challenge really. Challenging sayings can come to us too, perhaps in actual words from another, or in something or someone that we see, or in an insight that suddenly strikes us. A Christian should always be ready to hear what God might wish to say to us.

You can go on a dinner date, take a walk, get a coffee, etc. It's up to the couple to decide! What a great way to spend a Friday evening as a couple!
