

Fifty Truths Every Catholic
Teen Should Know

Dear Confirmation Candidate:

As Archbishop, I very much enjoy the opportunity to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation with so many young people from parishes across northeast Kansas. If you are like most of those preparing for Confirmation, you are a teenager, and this is a time in your life when you are beginning to take ownership of your own ideas and exploring more seriously the truths that the Church teaches. It is an opportune moment for you to embrace more fully the reality of Jesus Christ and the truth, beauty, and goodness He has revealed. My hope is that you will enter more deeply into relationship with the person of Jesus Christ.

Falling in love with Jesus is a work of divine grace, but it requires a heart that is open to that grace and receptive to the gift being offered. The formation program offered by your parish should help you become more open to receiving the spiritual gifts that God has in store for you. Hopefully, the faith-filled witness of your parents, grandparents and other adult role models who love the Lord inspires you to want to know Jesus more deeply.

While knowing and loving the Lord is most important, knowing the content and meaning of what He has revealed and the implications of that revelation in the Christian life are also necessities in the sacramental preparation process. To that end, I have developed a list of fifty (50) questions that I think all Confirmandi (i.e., those preparing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation) should be able to answer. This booklet contains those questions and shows you the sources where the answers to the questions can be found.

These are not necessarily the most important questions related to the faith, nor should they be understood to be a comprehensive exploration of the entire content of the faith; admittedly, they are somewhat arbitrary. They do not, for example, address the Church's social doctrine, which is especially important for older teens preparing to head off to college or work. Nevertheless, I believe that as you prepare to be confirmed you should become familiar with and be able to answer the questions in this booklet. I am hopeful that the programs offered by your parish as part of your sacramental preparation will address these questions somewhere in the curriculum.

Thank you for putting forth the time and effort to prepare yourself to be confirmed. It is an important step on your ongoing journey as a disciple of the Lord Jesus; may He strengthen you and sustain you in this process. May the Holy Spirit, which I will call down upon you at the celebration of your Confirmation, enliven your efforts and ready your heart to receive the gifts that God offers.

Sincerely yours in Jesus, the Lord of Life,

Archbishop Joseph F. Naumann
Archdiocese of Kansas City in Kansas

50 Questions for Teens

1 Why did God create us?

In His loving goodness, God created us to know, love, and serve Him in this life and to be happy with Him for all eternity.

38 How should we prepare to receive Our Lord in Holy Communion?

We recall who it is we are receiving and approach the sacrament with great reverence and awe, which should be reflected in our demeanor and clothing. If we are in a state of mortal sin, we should repent of our sin and receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation before going to Communion. The Church also requires us to fast for at least one hour from all foods and liquids, except for water and medicine, before receiving Holy Communion.

St. Augustine: Sin is “an utterance, a deed, or a desire contrary to the eternal law.”
Penitential Rite at Mass: “I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do . . .”

45 Are some sins more serious than others?

Mortal sin destroys God’s life in us and, if we do not repent, could lead to damnation. For a sin to be mortal, it must be a serious matter and be committed with full knowledge and consent. Venial sins are less serious sins that nonetheless strain our relationship with God.

St. Augustine: "You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our heart is restless until it rests in you."

Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful.
And kindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
And you will renew the face of the earth.

Lord,
by the light of the Holy Spirit
you have taught the hearts of your faithful.
In the same Spirit
help us to relish what is right
and always rejoice in your consolation.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
